Property Description

Casa Olivo This recently built home is located in the sought-after K section, offering a serene living experience. Boasting two bedrooms, the house sits atop the lush tree canopy, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding jungle and a refreshing breeze. The open-plan kitchen and living area features soaring vaulted ceilings, allowing natural light to flood in. Below the house, a spacious carport presents an opportunity to convert into an extra bedroom, office or a garage for extra storage. The property also has ample room for a pool, making it a great place for relaxation and entertainment. Nestled on a tranquil street that sees little traffic, the location of the home is peaceful and private, making it the perfect retreat.
